

First Quality Maintenance contract

First Quality Maintenance, the janitorial division of Alliance Building Services, recently received an exclusive contract to provide cleaning services at The Centre at Purchase, a Class A, 43-acre corporate campus located in Westchester County, NY.

The Centre at Purchase consists of one 3-story and three 4-story office buildings ranging from 98,100 to 223,200 s/f and is owned and managed by George Comfort & Sons, Inc. and O'Connor Capital Partners.

First Quality Maintenance provides full-service cleaning for over 100 buildings in the New York metropolitan area buildings encompassing more than 60 million square feet.

"Exceptional high-end quality maintenance is extremely important not only to the building's tenant's but to the overall appearance," said Bill Masella, senior vice president of Alliance Building Services. "We are delighted to be bringing our years of experience in the cleaning and janitorial services to these 4 distinctive Westchester County office properties and look forward to continuing our partnership with George Comfort & Sons."

"Having worked with Alliance in the past, we are thrilled to be strengthening our relationship with them," said Steven Ketchabaw, Vice President of George Comfort & Sons, Inc. "FQM has an outstanding reputation in the building maintenance industry so we are confident that they will continue to provide quality service to keep the properties looking great." ■

