
PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

First Quality wins Conn. exclusive

First Quality Maintenance and Classic Security, divisions of Alliance Building Services recently received exclusive contracts to provide cleaning and security services at 400 Atlantic Street, Stamford Conn. This 500,000 s/f, class A commercial office building located in the busy hub of downtown Stamford, Conn. is owned by The Landis Group.

Amenities of the building include: excellent access to I-95, Metro North and Amtrak Railroad stations, as well as the upscale Town Center Mall; new cafeteria and fitness center; upscale lobby with concierge and security system as well as an eight-level parking garage.

"We are delighted that The Landis Group has decided to make us a part of their team," said Gary Green, chief executive officer of Alliance Building Service. "This is an incredible building in Connecticut's downtown commercial district and we look forward to bringing our years of experience in cleaning and security services to the property." ■